

We, Presentation people, commit to respond to the cry of Earth and to people made poor by embracing the Sustainable Development Goals, providing us a plan of action for living the values of Nano's life. IPA Mission Statement

Service

Nano Nagle Icon Panel.
Used with permission from
Nano Nagle Place, Cork, Ireland

LAUDATO SI: A CALL TO ECOLOGICAL CONVERSION

Ecological Economics

acknowledges that the economy is a sub-system of human society, which itself is embedded in the biosphere – our common home.

\(Laudato Si Goal 3\)

DEEDS: A CALL TO ACTION

Focusing on providing assistance to those on the margins:

- Share a smile or kind word with someone who is experiencing homelessness.
- Consider compiling a 'Share the Dignity' gift bag.
- Undertake further education to broaden your awareness regarding mental health.
- Share a meal with someone you know who is experiencing loneliness as a result of challenging circumstances.
- Engage in dialogue around how climate change disproportionately impacts people living in poverty.

WORDS: A CALL TO REFLECT

In our Presentation tradition, the light of the lantern has become a sacred symbol of service, going out to meet the needs of the world with presence and action. In Nano's time, the lantern was a sign of hope for those who saw it.

Today, we continue to be inspired and challenged by the model of Nano Nagle who gave all that she had to respond with compassionate service to the people she saw suffering around her.

How can you be of service to others this month?

