

Nano's Memorial Day

26 April

Love lives...

when we gratefully remember those who have loved us into life.

Love lives...

when we gratefully remember those whose lives were given in the service of our community.

Love lives...

when we every choice we make, every action we take is respectful, compassionate and just and honours our interconnectedness as people who share this earth, our common home.

In these special days of remembering...

Nano's Memorial Day

we heed Nano's last words to her community –

“Love one another as you have hitherto done”

we hear Jesus calling to us –

“Love one another as I have loved you” John 13:34

we pray...

God ever present
may your love for us
enliven every choice we make,
every action we take.
